SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: NARA is proposing to open 1,941 segments of Nixon White House tapes related to abuse of governmental power from 931 separate conversations recorded from February 1971—April 1972, and July 1972—July 1973. These segments total approximately 201 hours of listening time.

The first opening of Nixon White House tapes, on May 28, 1980, included 12 and ½ hours of conversations used as evidence in Watergate trials. The second opening, on June 4, 1991, included 47 and ½ additional hours of conversations obtained by the Watergate Special Prosecution Force but not played in court. The third opening, on May 17, 1993, included approximately 3 additional hours of abuse of governmental power segments for the months of May and June 1972.

There are no transcripts for these tapes. Tape logs, prepared by NARA, are offered for public access as a finding aid to the tape segments and a guide for the listener. There is a separate tape log entry for each segment of conversation released. Each tape log entry includes the names of participants; date, time, and location of the conversation; and an outline of the content of the conversation.

The tape recordings will be made available to the general public in the research room at 8601 Adelphi Road, College Park, Maryland, Monday through Friday between 8 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. Listening stations will be available for public use on a first come, first served basis. NARA reserves the right to limit listening time in response to heavy demand. No copies of the tape recordings will be sold or otherwise provided at this time. No sound recording devices will be allowed in the listening area. Researchers may take notes. Copies of the tape log will be available for purchase.
